Friends, you won't believe it... and even if you do, would you believe we've just received a top-secret communication from one of our highly reliable, passionate operatives in Miloupescot? The underground church there wanted to pass along an important message about showing love to others. Fortunately, we've built a partial decoding key from previous transmissions. Unfortunately... our expert decryption team is currently away at Middle School Summer Church Camp. Missed it by that much! So the fate of this mission rests in your hands. Using the numbers in the key, identify the correct letters and decipher the hidden message. Then, and only then, transmit the completed message to your Benevolence Pastor. Good luck!
